My Dear doctor

I hope that by this time you will have thoroughly recovered from your illness, and that the trip to Switzerland which you had intended taking, has entirely completed your convalescence.

The lady at the post office in the Post-restaurant department has already kindly informed of your presence in Prag. I have myself been in town only since yesterday, and am already installed at the Gebäräustalt, with the intention of spending a month or five weeks in this same.

If you will kindly leave word for me in the Post-restaurant, at what time of the day and when I might call on you, I should be most happy to do so, and to congratulate you personally on your complete recovery.

With my compliments and very kindest regards to Mrs. Karlowitz and the rest of your family, and hoping very soon to hear from you

I remain in the meantime

yours very sincerely
Felix Cohen

Dear doctor

I am exceedingly sorry to have been prevented from bidding you good-bye in person.

Friends have just informed me that courses begin in Vienna to-morrow, and I am obliged to leave in a hurry. With many thanks for your kind hospitality, and my compliments to your wife, I remain in hopes of a future meeting, in the meantime yours sincerely
Dr. F. C. Au
